2	WHEREAS , the federal government has increased its power far beyond the confines set for it by the United States Constitution; and
3
4 5 6	WHEREAS , President Barack Obama and other executive branch officers of the federal government in particular have unilaterally expanded their power at the expense of the other branches of government; and
7
8 9	WHEREAS , these expanded executive branch powers are threatening basic freedoms that belong to all citizens; and
10
11 12	WHEREAS , it is the proper duty of the United States Congress to control the power of the purse in order to bring the executive branch in line with its proper role; and
13
14 15 16	WHEREAS , Representative Ken Buck of Colorado has introduced in the United States House of Representatives H.R. 4371 - Article I Consolidated Appropriations Amendments, 2016, containing provisions that will rein in executive branch actions in a number of areas; and
17
18 19 20 21	WHEREAS , H.R. 4371 - Article I Consolidated Appropriations Amendments, 2016, contains a provision that will defund implementation of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010, also referred to as "Obamacare," thus freeing us from the effects of this intrusive and fiscally irresponsible law; and
22
23 24	WHEREAS , H.R. 4371 - Article I Consolidated Appropriations Amendments, 2016, contains a provision that will prevent the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) from paying
